

streaming independent films

IndieFlix is a streaming movie service that offers access to award-winning shorts, feature films, and documentaries. Now library patrons can instantly view over 4,500 titles from more than 50 different countries, including the best from film festivals like Sundance, Cannes, Tribeca, and more! IndieFlix has advanced search tools to make browsing IndieFlix simple. Patrons have unlimited access to the streaming library and can view movies on Apple®, Android®, or other Internet-enabled devices. New titles are added all of the time.
