

eBooks, eAudiobooks, streaming movies

The Bridgeport Public Library is a member of the WV DELI, an online consortium for digitally circulated material. The library's contribution to this database earns its patrons access to nearly 40,000 downloadable items. Items in this database are borrowed digitally and returned at their expiration, if not manually returned. Easily download bestsellers to your eReader, tablet, or mobile phone!

Sign in instructions:

1. Click "Sign in"
2. Select "Bridgeport Public Library"
3. Click "Sign in"
4. Enter your ten digit library card barcode number and last name

Bridgeport Public Library, Fayette County Public Library, Marion County Public Library, and Ohio County Public Library all participate in a program called Advantage, which allows them to add additional copies of popular titles that are exclusively available for their patrons.

By having a Bridgeport Public Library card, you have access to extra titles which have been purchased especially for you. Extra copies means that your wait time for holds is reduced.

Sign in and look for the

to see which titles may be available to you!

